

Report on Corporate Governance 2018

This statutory report on Recommendations on Corporate Governance from the Committee on Corporate Governance, forms part of Jyske Bank's Annual Report 2018. The statement is not covered by the auditors' report in the Annual Report.

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant yes / no	Jyske Bank comments
1.	The company's communication and interaction with the company's investors and other stakeholders
	The company's investors, employees and other stakeholders have a common interest in furthering the company's development and that, at any time, the company is able to adapt to changing requirements and hence at all times be competitive and able to create value. Therefore it is of vital importance that positive interaction is established, not only between management and investors but also in relation to other stakeholders. Corporate governance is also about establishing an appropriate framework that enables investors to enter into a dialogue with the company's management. It requires openness and transparency for the company's investors and other stakeholders to be able, on an on-going basis, to assess and relate to the company and its future and engage in a constructive dialogue with the company. The Company's management must ensure an appropriate and balanced development of the company in the short as well as the long term.
1.1.	Dialogue between the company, the shareholders and other shareholders
1.1.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the board of directors ensure an on-going dialogue between the company and its shareholders in order for the shareholders to gain relevant insight into the company and in order for the	X	Jyske Bank is compliant. Jyske Bank's board of directors or, as referred to by the Bank, its 'Supervisory Board' keeps a close dialogue with the Shareholders' Representatives elected by the shareholders, and the viewpoints of

	board of directors to be aware of the shareholders' views, interests and opinions in respect of the company.		the Shareholders' Representatives are actively and determinedly considered in material decision-making processes. The Supervisory Board of Jyske Bank continuously considers the opportunities of strengthening the dialogue with the shareholder with a view to enhancing its knowledge of the shareholders' attitudes, interests and viewpoints. The Supervisory Board emphasises that the dialogue also takes in consideration other key stakeholders, including not least clients, employees and society at large. The Supervisory Board emphasises that these views are robust and general, and not just reflecting short-term views that are not representative of general investor interests.
1.1.2.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the board of directors adopt policies on the company's relationship with its stakeholders, including shareholders and other investors, and also that the board ensure that the interests of the shareholders are respected in accordance with the company's policies in this respect.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
1.1.3.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the company publish quarterly reports.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
1.2.	General Meeting
1.2.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that, when making preparations for the company's general meetings, the board of directors plan the conduct of proceedings in such a way that it supports active ownership.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant. Because the number of shareholders exceeds 180,000, the management of the bank is aware of the physical limitations in respect of the shareholders' active ownership, including participation in the annual general meeting and an ongoing dialogue.

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant yes / no	Jyske Bank comments
			Not least this acknowledgement was a contributing reason why the Supervisory Board and the Executive Board actively involve the Shareholders' Representatives when material decisions are to be made to ensure a constructive dialogue and that representative and stable shareholders' interests are considered in the basis for decisions. The Supervisory Board should like to see strengthening of the dialogue but does not find that the time (and the technology) is right to conduct annual general meetings as a fully or partially electronic general meeting, and therefore it has decided that until further notice general meetings will be conducted as physical meetings. The technological development in the area is followed closely.
1.2.2.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that proxies or absentee ballots to be used at the general meeting allow shareholders to consider each individual item on the agenda.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
1.3.	Takeover bids
1.3.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the company set up contingency procedures to be applied in the event of takeover bids from the time the Supervisory Board has reason to believe that a takeover bid will be made. The contingency procedure should establish that without the approval of the general meeting the board of directors should refrain from opposing a takeover bid by making arrangements that in actual fact would prevent shareholders from considering the takeover bid.	X	Jyske Bank is partially compliant. Jyske Bank's Supervisory Board has established contingency procedures, which - according to legislation and the Articles of Association of the company - do not prevent shareholders from taking a stand on takeover bids, but the Supervisory Board reserves the right, in the specific situation, to assess the possibilities of making such arrangements as it may deem in line with the shareholder' long-term interests and Jyske Bank's objective of remaining an independent group.

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant yes / no	Jyske Bank comments
2.	Tasks and responsibilities of the board of directors It is the responsibility of the board of directors carefully to safeguard the interests of the shareholders with due regard to the other stakeholders. The board of directors is responsible for the overall and strategic management of the company to ensure creation of value in the company. The board of directors shall define the strategic objectives of the company and ensure that the necessary basis for the achievement of these objectives are present in the form of both financial resources as well as competences and also ensure an adequate organisation of the activities of the company. In order to fulfil the strategic objectives of the company, the board of directors must appoint a competent executive board, establish the distribution of responsibilities between the board of directors and the executive board, the tasks and employment relationship of the executive board and also ensure clear guidelines for accountability, planning and follow-up as well as risk management. It is the responsibility of the board of directors to supervise the executive board and to lay down guidelines for the way in which such supervision is to be exercised. It is the responsibility of the board of directors to ensure that the executive board is continuously developed and retained or is discharged, and that the remuneration of the executive board reflects the long-term value creation as well as other results achieved by the executive board. The chairman of the board of directors shall organise, call and chair the board of directors' meeting with a view to ensuring efficiency of the board of directors' work and creating the best possible working conditions for the members, individually and collectively. In this way, it is also ensured that the special knowledge and competences of the individual member are used in the best possible way and to the benefit of the company. In order for the board of directors to fulfil its obligations, the chairman should in cooperation with the board of directors ensure that on an on-going basis the members update and expand their knowledge of matters relevant to the company and see to it that the special knowledge and competences of the individual member are used in the best possible way to the benefit of the company.
2.1.	Overall tasks and responsibilities
2.1.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that at least once a year the board of directors consider matters related to the board of directors' performance of its tasks.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant yes / no	Jyske Bank comments
2.1.2.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that at least once a year the board of directors consider the company's overall strategy with a view to ensuring the value creation in the company.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
2.1.3.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the board of directors ascertain that the company has a capital and share structure ensuring that the company's strategy and long-term value creation are in the interest of the shareholders and the company and give an account of this in the management's review and/or on the company's website.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
2.1.4.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that annually the board of directors review and approve guidelines for the executive board, which also entails that it lays down requirements for the executive board's reporting to the board of directors.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
2.1.5.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that at least once a year the board of directors discuss the composition of the executive board and developments, risks and succession plans.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
2.2.	Corporate social responsibility
2.2.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the board of directors adopt policies on corporate social responsibility.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
2.3.	Chairman and deputy chairman of the board of directors

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant	yes / no	Jyske Bank comments
2.3.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that a deputy chairman of the board of directors be appointed who will assume the responsibilities of the chairman in the event of the chairman's absence, and who will also act as effective sparring partner for the chairman..	X		Jyske Bank is compliant.
2.3.2.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that if, exceptionally, the board of directors requests the chairman of the board of directors to perform special tasks for the company, including participation in the day-to-day management for a short period, a board resolution to this effect be passed to ensure that the board of directors maintains its independent overall management and control function. Resolutions about the chairman's participation in the day-to-day management and the expected duration of this should be made public.	X		Jyske Bank is compliant.
3.	The composition and organisation of the board of directors The board of directors should be composed in such a way that it is able to execute its strategic, managerial and supervisory tasks. It is essential that the board of directors be composed so as to ensure effective performance of its tasks in a constructive and qualified dialogue with the executive board Also, it is of material importance that the members of the board of directors always act independently of special interests. The board of directors defines which competences the company needs and assesses on an on-going basis whether its composition and the members' competences individually and collectively match the requirements of the company's situation and circumstances. Diversity enhances the quality of the work and the interaction in the board of directors, for instance though a diversified approach to managerial tasks.

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant yes / no	Jyske Bank comments
	The board of directors should each year, with a view to increasing value creation, evaluate its composition and ensure the necessary renewal while observing the wish for continuity. In addition to the board members elected by the general meeting, the board of directors may also comprise members elected by employees according to the relevant stipulations of the Danish Companies Act.
3.1.	Composition
3.1.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that annually the board of directors assess and, in the management's review, give an account of <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the competencies that the board of directors must possess in order to solve its tasks in the best possible way, • the composition of the board of directors, and • the special competence of the individual members. 	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
3.1.2.	IT IS RECOMMENDED, that annually the board of directors discuss the company's activities to ensure relevant diversity at the company's managerial levels and also prepare and adopt a policy on diversity. This policy should be published on the company's website.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant. The Supervisory Board has established a policy for diversity in the Supervisory Board that furthers adequate diversity in regard to qualifications and competences among the members of the Supervisory Board. According to the Articles of Association of Jyske Bank, members of the Supervisory Board are generally recruited from the Shareholders' Representatives In this way, it is the intention to attract candidates who possess a wide range of qualifications and competences.

			Also, importance is attached to ensuring sufficient geographical and commercial diversification as well as diversification in terms of age in the Shareholders' Representatives and the Supervisory Board. Each year a separate written report on equal opportunities and diversity is prepared, and this report is available on the Bank's website.
3.1.3.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the board of directors' selection and nomination of candidates for the board of directors be carried out on the basis of a thorough and for the board of directors transparent process that has been approved by the board of directors. In the assessment of the composition and nomination of new candidates, the need for renewal and the need for diversity should also be taken into consolidation in addition to the need for competencies and qualifications.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant. The Supervisory Board has set up a nomination committee. The committee monitors and assesses on an on-going basis whether, as a whole, the Supervisory Board has the necessary competencies in the light of the Bank's business model, including the competencies stipulated in legislation by the authorities. The committed nominates candidates for election to the Supervisory Board and the Shareholders' Representatives, and in that connection regulatory requirements, the competence profile, the Bank's set of values as well as the need for innovation and diversity in the Supervisory Board are considered.
3.1.4.	It is recommended that, in addition to what is stipulated by law, the notice convening the annual general meeting when election of members to the board of directors is on the agenda be accompanied by a description of the competencies of the candidates as well as information about the candidates'	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • other managerial posts, including directorships, various board memberships, including posts on board committees, of Danish and foreign enterprises, • demanding organisational duties Moreover, it must be stated whether the candidates for the board of directors are considered to be independent.
3.1.5.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that members of the company's executive board not be members of the board of directors, and that a resigning managing director not be directly appointed chairman or deputy chairman of the board of directors of the same company.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
3.1.6.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that board of directors members elected by the general meeting be up for election every year at the annual general meeting.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant. However, Supervisory Board members elected by the Shareholders' Representatives are elected for a period of three years.
3.2.	Independence of the board of directors
3.2.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that at least half of the members of the board of directors elected by the general meeting be independent so that the board of directors can act independently of special interests. To be considered independent a member must not: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • be or within the past five years have been a member of the executive board or a senior staff 	X	Jyske Bank is compliant. The Supervisory Board considers seniority more important than the formal 12-year limit to independent membership of a board of directors and does therefore not consider 12-year seniority on a board of directors an absolute limit to the maximum period a board member can be considered to be independent.

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant yes / no	Jyske Bank comments
	member of the company, a subsidiary or an associated company, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • within the past five years have received any major remuneration from the company/group, a subsidiary or an associated company in another capacity than that of being on the board of directors, • represent or be associated with a controlling shareholder, • within the past year have had any material business relation (for instance personally or indirectly as a partner or employee, shareholder, customer, supplier or a member of the management of companies with a similar relation) with the company, a subsidiary or an associated company, • be or within the past three years have been employed by or have been a partner of the same company as the auditor elected by the annual general meeting, • have been chief executive in a company holding cross-memberships with the company, • have been a member of the board of directors for more than 12 years, or • be closely related to persons who are not considered to be independent. Notwithstanding that a member of the board of directors is not covered by the above criteria, there may be other factors causing the board of directors to decide

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant yes / no	Jyske Bank comments that one or more members cannot be considered to be independent.
3.3.	Board members and the number of managerial posts
3.3.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that each member of the board of directors assess how much time is needed for the task in question so that members do not assume more tasks than each member can perform in a way that is satisfactory to the company.	X	Jyske Bank is compliant.
3.3.2.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that, in addition to what is stipulated by law, the management's review contain the following information about the members of the board of directors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the member's position, • the member's age and sex, • the member's competencies and qualifications of relevance to the company • the date when the member was appointed to the board of directors, • the expiry of the current term of office, • the member's participation in board and committee meetings • the member's other managerial posts, including directorships, various board memberships, including posts on committees, of Danish and foreign enterprises as well as demanding organisational duties, and 	X	Jyske Bank is compliant. 3.3.3	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the annual evaluation procedure, according to 3.5, contain an assessment of what is considered a reasonable level for the number of managerial posts, taking into consideration the number, the level and the complexity of the individual other managerial posts.	X		Jyske Bank is compliant.
3.4.	Board committees Board committees may increase the efficiency and enhance the quality of the work of the board of directors. A board committee should be set up with the sole purpose of facilitating the transaction of business by the board of directors and must not cause significant information required by all members of the board of directors only to be communicated to the board committee, or that the processing required in the board of directors be limited or omitted. The full responsibility for all decision prepared by the board committee rests with the board of directors. The board of directors should consider whether the company is particularly exposed, or whether other matters might motivate setting up further permanent committees other than the ones recommended below. This may contribute to better utilisation of the special competences that may be available in the board of directors. Examples of such committees are R&D or risk committees. Moreover, the board of directors may establish ad hoc committees in connection with special tasks or problems of a material yet temporary nature. This may help to ensure the necessary focus on the task in question as well as the priority of this in terms of timing. Such problems may be CSR, ethical or image-related issues, major acquisitions or takeover bids.

4.	Remuneration of management

	Corporate Governance Recommendations	Compliant yes / no	Jyske Bank comments
	Openness and transparency about all important issues regarding company policy on and amounts of the total remuneration offered to members of the governing bodies are essential. Company policy on remuneration should support a long-term value creation for the company. Competitive remuneration is a prerequisite for attracting and retaining competent members of the management of the company. The company should have a remuneration policy, according to which the total remuneration package, i.e. the fixed and variable components and other remuneration components, as well as other significant employment terms, should be reasonable and reflect the management body members' independent performance, responsibilities and value creation for the company. The variable component of the remuneration (the incentive pay scheme) should be based on actual achievements over a period of time with a view to long-term value creation so as not to promote short-term and risky behaviour. The board of directors should consider the need to involve external advisers in connection with the preparation of the remuneration policy and the implementation of this. Information of the management's remuneration should be gathered in a remuneration report.
4.1.	Form and content of the remuneration policy
4.1.1.	IT IS RECOMMENDED that the board of directors prepare a remuneration policy for the board of directors and the executive board, including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a detailed description of the components of the remuneration for members of the board of directors and the executive board, • the reasons for choosing the individual components of the remuneration, • a description of the criteria on which the balance between the individual components of the remuneration is based, 	X	Jyske Bank is compliant with the recommendation, yet Jyske Bank does not have any incentive schemes. See also comments on 4.2.3.

5.	Financial reporting, risk management and audits Each member of the board of directors and the executive board is responsible for preparing the annual report and other financial reports in accordance with current legislation, applicable standards and any further requirements concerning financial statements stipulated in articles of association, etc. The annual report and other financial reports should be supplemented by additional financial and non-financial information, if deemed necessary or relevant in relation to the information needs of the recipients. The members of the board of directors and executive board must ensure that the financial reporting is easy to understand and balanced and provides a true and fair view of the company's financial position, performance and cash flow. The management's review must give a true and fair presentation of the state of affairs, including value creation and the outlook. When considering and approving the annual report, the board of directors must specifically decide whether the financial reporting takes place on the assumption that the business is a going concern, including any special supporting assumptions and, if so, also any relevant qualifications where necessary. Effective risk management and an effective internal control system contribute to reducing strategic and business risks, to ensuring observance of current rules and regulations and to ensuring the quality of the basis for management decisions and financial reporting. It is essential that the risks are identified, and that the risks are managed appropriately

	Effective risk management and internal control are a precondition for the board of directors and the executive board to efficiently perform the tasks bestowed upon them.
